

Raleigh - NC March 31, 2005

The Young Guru Academy (YGA), an Istanbul-based non-governmental organization (NGO) devoted to developing a unique brand of imaginative business leaders, held its third annual Young Guru Academy (YGA-3) program in North Carolina on March 16-21.

YGA-3 was hosted by the local Turkish-American communities of the Triangle and Wilmington areas, with financial sponsorship provided by major multinational companies of Turkey. Participants were a group of promising Turkish university students with the potential of becoming the future leaders and visionaries of Turkey.
